Notes For AWD Events

- Minimum of 3 entries for an event to be confirmed. Some events may be run concurrently with another age group. In the case of throwing events, athletes will use the implement weight as per their own age group.
- Maximum of 4 individual events per athlete plus relay
- Qualifying standards should be used as a guide only. i.e. They are indicators of the standards required to participate at this level of competition.
- Relays are "Open"; no classification structure/requirements.
- Classification class 20 (Intellectual Disability) athletes must be able to have their classification validated by Ausrapid.
- Classification classes 11-13 (Vision) 31-38 (Cerebral Palsy), 40-46 (Amputee), 51-58 (Wheelchair) are encouraged to register with the Australian Paralympic Committee (APC).
- Classification class 01 (Deaf), and 60 (Transplant) athletes should be registered with their appropriate organizations. These athletes will be required to give their membership numbers when registering.
- Teams are asked to provide indication of likely entries in advance of final team registration.
- Competitors must compete in their own age group except where otherwise stated e.g. Open Event
